

WHAT TO EXPECT WHEN YOU'RE EXPECTING

Frank as your meeting speaker

- Frank does not have a “canned” speech. All his talks are customized to suit your unique message.
- Frank shows up in tune. He will meet with several members of your audience in advance to insure he is in sync with your attendees.
- Frank delivers a dynamic keynote experience. Our creative team works with Frank to customize a unique live event experience.
- Frank works in relatable stories. His stories are crafted to be emotionally evocative and will engage and inspire your audience. They will leave excited and ready to take immediate action.
- Frank has maintained a lifelong commitment to his own personal and professional growth. He walks his talk which allows audiences to instantly feel his authenticity and relate to his concepts easily.
- Frank’s presentation style is energetic, interactive, and charismatic, ensuring he keeps your audience engaged.
- While Frank may be the one on stage, it’s never about him. It’s about you. Frank considers himself a conduit to deliver immediately actionable content to audiences in an easy-to-use way.
- The keynote delivers immediately actionable tools. Of course, Frank wants to “jazz them up” at the meeting but then what? While he may be entertaining, this is not entertainment alone. Every presentation Frank delivers...delivers. Frank’s belief and purpose is to give people hope, enthusiasm, and a few ideas they can implement right away to make significant changes in their personal and business development lives.
- We are not “One and Done.” With Frank’s book, weekly blog, and deeper-dive seminars you can choose the best way to reinforce the message and sustain the desire for action your folks will feel after the keynote.
